

It's That Time of Year Again!
You are invited to attend the 5th Annual OUT for Work
LGBTQA College Student Career Conference!!
Westin City Center Hotel, Washington, D.C September 25-27th, 2009.

OUT for Work, the only nonprofit dedicated to educating, preparing, and empowering LGBTQA college students for the transition from academia to the workplace, is celebrating its' 5th Year, and we want YOU to be a part of it!!

What to expect:

Panel Discussions:

America's top employers share coming out at work stories, how the decision to be "out" has impacted their careers, how to find and be "out" in grad school, being "out" outside of corporate America, how to be LGBTQ & an ethnic minority, and so much more!

Presentations:

Well known speakers including Donna Rose, transgender advocate, address issues such as transitioning in the workplace.

Skill building workshops:

Get the job you want! Learn how to network and have a great resume and interview!

PRIDE Career Fair:

Find an internship, part-time, or full-time job with employers leading the way for LGBT workplace equality

Registration is now open! www.outforwork.org

Cost:

$45 per student, $55 per professional, $300 for a group of 10, and $500 for a group of 20.

New this year: Fill your table at the conference and we will give you $200 cash to fund LGBTQ & Allied programs at your school or organization!

Who should attend? Undergraduate, graduate, alumni students, faculty, staff, friends & family!
Please check out our website, www.outforwork.org for more information and in addition, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Alex Gant, Program Coordinator, Out for Work alex@outforwork.com
1325 Massachusetts Ave, N.W Suite 700, #702 Washington D.C, 20005

