

Corey S. Kline

(000) 555-0000 | csk000@duke.edu

Box 00000
Durham, NC 27708

0000 E. Street
Rowland Heights, LA 00000

Education Duke University

Durham, NC

B.A. Major: Political Science; Minors: Economics and History; GPA: 3.75/4.0; Expected graduation: May 2006

Relevant coursework: Economic Principles, Statistical Inference/Analysis, Financial Accounting, Chinese Economic Reform, American Politics, Analytical Politics for Public Policy

Honors: Dean's List with Distinction, Phi Eta Sigma Honor Society, The National Dean's List

Study Abroad: Freie Universität, Berlin: Studied political science and economics on full scholarship, Summer 2003
Conducted comparative research on village and county politics in Beijing and Shandong Province with $5000 travel grant from Duke Asian Pacific Studies Institute, May-June 2004

Work Experience

Goldman, Sachs & Co., Summer Analyst, Fixed Income Research and Principal Strategies New York, NY Jun-Aug 2005

- Utilized proprietary software applications to conduct research and comparable analyses on investment grade companies' credit ratings, debt leverage, debt spreads, event risk, and industry trends
- Generated credit model for metals company providing debt analysis, future earnings, and cash flows, using data from annual reports, 10-K, 10-Q and industry-wide input prices
- Updated 38 financial models for coverage of European financial institutions with data from annual reports
- Produced comprehensive report on steel scraps industry for firm's premier proprietary trading desk

Kinghorn, Hilbert & Associates, LLC, Legislative Intern Washington, DC Jun-Aug 2004

- Researched the legislative history of bills and analyzed business issues for government consulting firm
- Attended session of the House Committee on Small Business, the Ways and Means Committee, and the National Association of Manufacturers; wrote hearing summaries on issues affecting client interest
- Drafted firm's response to RFP by analyzing client needs and articulating firm's resources
- Lobbied with congressional staff to promote legislative initiatives on behalf of firm's clients

Sanford Institute of Public Policy, Duke University, Research Assistant Durham, NC Aug-Dec 2003

- Researched nonprofit foundation grant giving by gathering data through internet databases and library
 - Extrapolated findings and summarized research conclusions in weekly memos
-

Leadership & Activities

Round Table, Selective Living Group Durham, NC Jan 2004-present

- Elected to coordinate weekly community service activities for 50+ member selective living group
- Established and maintained relationships with local organizations such as the Duke-Durham Partnership, St. James Baptist Church, Duke University Hospital, and various neighborhood associations
- Tutor former substance abusers in basic math and reading/writing skills in preparation for the GED Exam

First-Year Advisory Counsel (FAC), Counselor Durham, NC 2002- 2003

- Counsel and mentor ten first-year students. Undergo training in counseling and event-planning

The Pitchforks of Duke University, Member Durham, NC 2003-present

- Sing in Duke University's premier acaPELLa group. Produced album, Honestly (2004)
-

Interests, Skills & Hobbies

Languages: Spanish (advanced beginner), Chinese-Mandarin (fluent)

Technology: Proficient in Word, PowerPoint, Excel, MX Dreamweaver, and HTML

Hobbies: Running, golf, basketball, music, documentary films, theater, and non-fiction literature